

Each friday S.E.L. Inc. sends a fax to a limited number of our business customers advising them of the current leasing rates. The intent is to keep the recipient current on changes in the prime interest rate as it affects the recipient. (Question) Is this in conflict with the "Telephone Consumer Protection Act"

REf: Federal Register, 68FR44144 of 7/25/03